Ellie takes her eyes off her grandson. What happens next will change her life forever. Because Ellie is hiding something in her past. She has two grown up children and a small grandson. 467 This book was told in 3 parts. But I kept going. Part 2 seemed to pick up speed. And then by Part 3 things started making more sense. Her husband proves nasty and disloyal. Their marriage is not a good one. Meanwhile we follow Jo in separate chapters. A homeless woman Ellie often helped out. We watch her travels from Oxford to Bristol to Cornwall. Definitely not one to miss out on. BUT THEY'RE SAYING IT'S MURDER. Every Monday 49-year-old Ellie looks after her grandson Josh. She loves him more than anyone else in the world. Tokia gausa sumišusių jausmų užgriuvo mane lyg lavina. Ellie loves her grandson Josh. She looks after him on a Monday afternoon. She thinks history is repeating itself. Mental health and abuse. I couldn't put this down. I highly recommend. Thank you NetGalley and Penguin for a copy of this book. 4 stars.Jane Corry is publishing another book. Ellie loves her grandson Josh. She takes care of him on a Monday afternoon. Her husband is having an affair. It brings things from Ellie's past to the fore. The characters are realistic and believable. For various reasons neither woman has had an easy life. I loved this book very highly recommended by little old me
